

behind closed doors is an instrumental trio (guitar, bass, drums) whose members originate from Germany, Sweden and Hungary. While their musical roots are found in groovy, yet rhythmical complex metal, behind closed doors compositions mirror their members' endeavors in various musical genres like contemporary classical music, jazz or world percussion. All three members are professional full time musicians with a thorough educational background.

behind closed doors is

Christoph Teuschel – guitars, programming, concepts

Fred Jacobsson – bass, synths

Peter Somos – drums, percussion

Reviews:

“Live this trio probably blows you away...” VISIONS, Dirk Siepe

“We are served progressive metal with tremendous power, plenty of breaks in style and a lot of surprises. Boredom? Thats a negative!” FRAKTUR

“For musicians and aficionados of prog metal this band is an absolute must”
